

The Salon Series will be held twice a month, on the second Thursday and the fourth Thursday of each month. Admission is free, donations encouraged. The New Winston Museum is located at 713 S. Marshall Street, Winston-Salem, NC. Overflow parking available in the Old Salem Visitors Center lot. Call 336.724.2842 for more information. Visit our Web site at www.newwinston.org.

Thursday, July 25, 5:30pm

Carol Strohecker, director of the Center for Design Innovation, will share her vision for the Winston-Salem based CDI to be a catalyst for transformation in North Carolina's Piedmont area, toward international recognition for preeminence in design.

Thursday, August 8, 5:30pm

Better Blocks Ahead: Paula McCoy of the Winston-Salem Funders Collaborative will share how local community development corporations (CDC) are creating paths for social and economic vitality.

Thursday, August 22, 5:30pm

Foodways & Roadways: Margaret Savoca of the Wake Forest Translational Science Institute will lead a discussion on this evolving initiative seeking to educate on topics of food availability and social justice in Winston-Salem's underserved African-American communities.

Thursday, September 12, 5:30pm

Staying Afloat in the Social Media Sea: Join veteran marketing pro Amy Garland as she moderates a discussion with social media whizzes Wren Wilson and Scott Burton. This will be a great primer for small business owners and nonprofit organizations looking for ways to elevate your online profile.

Thursday, September 26, 5:30pm

Standing Up – The Local 22 Union: One small groundswell in NC's union history may have set the pace for sweeping change within the local civil rights movement. This discussion will feature an amazing panel of speakers including Will Cox, Linda Sutton, Dr. Larry Little and Robert Korstad, author of "Civil Rights Unionism."

Thursday, October 10, 12:00pm

WS Industries for the Blind- A Collective Vision: Join us on World Sight Day as Carver Rudolph shares info about this homegrown business that began in 1936 as a two-room shop downtown in an effort to provide employment opportunities to persons who were blind or visually impaired. Today, it is one of largest employers of blind people in the country.

Thursday, October 24, 5:30pm

Winston & Salem: Tales of Murder, Mystery and Mayhem Jennifer Bean Bower has spent many years collecting accounts of the extraordinary historic events that have occurred in her hometown of Winston- Salem. Winston & Salem: Tales of Murder, Mystery and Mayhem covers 118 years of history and introduces readers to real-life characters and stories not soon to be forgotten. Great Halloween date!

Thursday, November 7, 5:30pm

With Courage and Valor: Several local veterans will share the latest developments for the Carolina Field of Honor at Triad Park. The Park will be a symbol of historical fact that our community shows the highest respect and honor to our Veterans, those of the past, present and future, a sacred ground for those we respect and honor.

Thursday, November 21, 5:30pm

Twin City Story Time II: Four Winston-Salem story tellers share their tales of the city.

New Winston Museum is the community museum for Winston-Salem and Forsyth County. Our mission is to preserve, promote and present the dynamic history and diverse stories of the Winston-Salem/ Forsyth County community through education and collaboration.